Donor-advised funds

A donor-advised fund is a giving account that allows you to make contributions, get immediate tax deductions, earn tax-free growth on investments, and control how and when you recommend grants from the fund to support an area at Virginia Commonwealth University that is important to you.

How it works

Create a fund. DAF-sponsoring organizations include community foundations, national charities and charitable organizations affiliated with financial institutions.

Receive a charitable deduction. Contributions to DAFs are eligible for an immediate charitable deduction.

Add to the fund. Grow your fund and receive an additional tax deduction whenever you wish.

Support VCU. Recommend grants be disbursed from the fund to benefit the college, school, department, unit or program you care about most. You may also name VCU as a successor beneficiary of your fund.

How you benefit

Avoid capital gains tax. No capital gains tax is realized on the transfer of appreciated assets into a DAF.

Receive an immediate tax deduction. You receive a charitable deduction at the time you make a gift to your DAF, not when grants are made to charities.

Simplify your philanthropy. If you use your DAF for charitable giving, you only need to provide the receipt from your DAF contribution to your tax-preparer if you itemize deductions on your tax return.

Diversify the assets you use for philanthropy. Some DAFs can accept donations of non-cash assets such as appreciated securities, real estate and personal property.

Increase your philanthropic capacity. The funds you contribute to your DAF grow tax-free, creating the possibility of having more to give to charity over time.

Next steps

Evaluate potential DAF options. Consider which types of grant recommendations a DAF will approve, which types of assets it accepts, whether it has funding and gift minimums, whether a portion of the account must be earmarked to support the sponsoring organization, what the succession options are, and associated fees and time constraints.

Establish a DAF. Choose the DAF that best meets your needs.

Recommend that a grant be made to VCU. Contact your DAF administrator to recommend a grant to VCU to support the area you care about.

Contact the VCU Office of Planned Giving to notify us of your DAF gift and how you have chosen to designate it. Some DAF administrators do not include complete donor or gift designation information on checks.

Planning tips

- Make recommendations for grants well before VCU needs the funds — it can take time for a check to be disbursed from a DAF.
- Grow your impact and avoid ongoing management fees by naming a VCU as successor beneficiary of your DAF.
Legacy societies

The Heritage Society on the Monroe Park Campus, the Medical College of Virginia Society on the MCV Campus and the Lawrence Society at VCU Massey Cancer Center recognize individuals who have made planned gifts for the benefit of the university and health system.

If you have included the university in your estate plan or made a planned gift that will benefit VCU, please let us know so that we may recognize your generosity and count you among those forward-thinking donors who are legacy society members at VCU.

Planned giving: transformative, long-lasting, flexible

Your giving to VCU provides critical operating funds for student aid, research and more. Every gift makes a real difference for all who learn, work and heal at VCU. Can we count on your lasting support to help us change lives?

You can use one or more methods of planned giving to provide the flexibility you need. The Office of Planned Giving looks forward to working with you to help structure a gift that supports VCU in a way that meets your goals.
